

WALMART

Last weekend, I promised the guys we could take the mini-van on a fishing trip,

But my wife says, "Oh no, I need the van.

I have to take Johnny for a haircut, Lori needs new sneakers,

I want to pick up some flowers for the patio, I have a roll of film to be developed,

And I haven't been to the grocery store all week."

I thought, "Great, there goes the fishing trip."

Then I remembered Walmart's Super Store, with groceries, a photomat,

A fantastic Sam's Haircutters, clothing, appliances,

And a terrific lawn and garden center all under one roof.

And Walmart always has great low prices.

So we did it all with one trip to Walmart --

And I brought home a bass this big!
