

WENDY'S- CORPORATE

This is the house that Dave built. Wendy's headquarters, and they just sent me a letter. Dear Mr. Wendy, that's me... Thanks very much for your kind words. Yes Wendy's hamburgers are delicious because we make them fresh the moment you order them and you're right our double cheese does rock especially the combo with fries and a drink. But as your self appointed title of Mr. Wendy unofficial spokesman, Our lawyers insist you cease and desist from representing us. That's corporate speak for keep up the good work.
