

SNAPPLE

I took a taste test today.

I took a terribly tough taste test today.

I took a terribly tough taste test today to test the taste of Snapple and the other leading iced teas.

It was the same terribly tough taste test that tons of people took.

So I took it too.

To try to tell if I could taste the difference.

And I could taste the difference.

In fact, when the taste test totals were tallied, the tons who took the terribly tough taste test agreed:

Snapple is "T-riffic!"
