DELTA

ANNCR: I have two point four kids. I have a house on three point six acres of land. And on a good week, I get to spend about twelve point eight hours enjoying it all. But thanks Delta Air Lines, I'm getting to spend more time at home. You see, Delta has over 600 flights a day coming in and out of Atlanta, so I can almost always book an earlier flight. Delta even lets me check in online. Which gives me even more time at home. When it comes to letting me spend time where I really want to, I give Delta a ten point 0. Hey, I've got business at home, too.
